To Whom It May Concern:

In the spring of 2010, my husband Russell Carey and I hired Tom Lopatosky's company – Lopco Contracting– to paint our home. We were impressed with Tom's communication style, his attention to detail, and his overall business acumen. He sent skilled and personable employees to paint and was on site regularly to answer our questions and provide support. We greatly appreciated Tom's ability to tailor the job to our circumstances and budget.

In addition to the quality of his work, Tom has earned our respect through his dedication to community service. When he learned of my Girl Scout troop's mural painting project, he generously offered his services. Lopco was able to donate paint and prepare the mural surface so that the girls could paint without depleting their funds. The paint alone would've wiped out our budget; we couldn't have done it without him. Tom joined our families and friends for our mural celebration at NMS Food Mart on North Main Street in Providence. His attendance was just another example of his willingness to go above and beyond.

Russell and I have owned our home for 14 years and have now had it painted three times by a variety of painting companies. Lopco's work was by far the best and most reasonably priced. We would hire Tom's company again without hesitation, and will continue to recommend Lopco to friends.

Sincerely,
